Jesus and his disciples went to Jerusalem to celebrate. People lined the road to greet him with branches of palm trees when he arrived, riding on a donkey. As this moment took place a week before Easter, it was called Palm Sunday.

The last supper was on Holy Thursday. Jesus spent the supper with his disciples. He then knew that Jude would betray him for a bag of money.

Roman soldiers arrested Jesus. He was accused to death and crucified on the hill of olive trees on Holy Friday, although he had not done anything wrong, but the Romans were afraid because people loved him very much.

On Holy Saturday Jesus Christ's body laid in a cave tomb, his body was wrapped in bandages.

On Easter Sunday, an extraordinary moment has happened. Three days after being killed Jesus rose from dead. Two angels appeared and told the women that Jesus was alive. Christians have been celebrating this day since then. Sadness has turned to happiness.
